

Marketing Humber

delivered by Bondholders

Rt Hon Justine Greening, Founder of the Social Mobility Pledge & Former Education Secretary

Justine Greening is the founder of the Social Mobility Pledge, bringing together more than 600 UK businesses and universities, covering over 7 million people committed to improving social mobility.

Justine is the former Secretary of State for Education (the first to attend a comprehensive school), Minister for Women and Equalities, Secretary of State for International Development, Secretary of State for Transport and Economic Secretary to the Treasury.

Justine was born and brought up in Rotherham and was MP for Putney from 2005 to 2019.